Wings Over Wayne Returns to Seymour Johnson Air Force Base in 2025

SEYMOUR JOHNSON AIR FORCE BASE, N.C. – The Wings Over Wayne Airshow returns to the Seymour Johnson Air Force Base flightline to showcase over 10 breathtaking acts that will demonstrate gravity defying aerial maneuvers and formations on May 3 and May 4, 2025.

Admission to the open house on Seymour Johnson Air Force Base is free and all ages are welcome.

“This open house will be greatest one Seymour Johnson has ever had because of our amazing line-up of acts to include the Thunderbirds,” said Maj. Ryan Young, Open House Director of the 2025 Wings Over Wayne Open House. “We know people will be excited and inspired when they experience this event.”

In the coming weeks, expect to learn more about the Wings Over Wayne Open House, its performers and ground displays through the Wings Over Wayne website, Facebook page and Instagram.
